

Save the Dates

November 2 – 4, 2012

The 18th Annual Centered Riding International Educational Symposium

“Self Carriage and Lightness in Rider and Horse”

Our keynote speaker and presenter is Eitan Beth-Halachmy. You can get an exclusive on the newly emerging Western dressage and how to ride the test from the founder of “Cowboy Dressage” himself. Additionally the symposium lineup includes the Centered Riding Annual General Meeting followed by a mixture of classroom presentations, unmounted workshops, arena demonstrations and opportunities to network: You will...

- Discover how liberty work relates to riding
- Delve into business, marketing and the new Western Dressage
- Understand how to teach an effective lunge lesson
- Explore how stability leads to lightness
- See the benefits of field work
- Experience the Feldenkrais take on gravity and riding
- View documentation of Centered Riding techniques in a new application
- Learn how Centered Riding helps the working horse
- And, gain insight into twenty years of top Centered Riding teaching tips.

Plus more for your travel dollars:

November 5 – 8, 2012 All Level Centered Riding Update Clinic with Sally Haney

November 9 – 11, 2012 Elaine Meredith Steele Centered Riding Open Clinic

World class and rustic sound like opposites but they are exactly the description of Rhodes River Ranch – gorgeous meeting rooms, an outstanding restaurant and a fantastic arena – all at one venue.

Rhodes River Ranch is a 1½ hour drive from the Seattle Tacoma Airport (SEA). Extensive hotel accommodations are within a half hour drive of the ranch. Special airline and room block discounts include October 31st through November 12th so you can maximize your educational opportunities into one trip.

Location:

Rhodes River Ranch

22016 Entsminger Road, Arlington, WA 98223

www.rhodesriverranch.com

For more information contact:

Elaine Meredith Steele, Symposium Committee Chairman

PO Box 3099, Richland WA 99354

(208) 660-5204

elaine@trinergy.net